

Job Requirements

Discover your chances with Gehrung & Partner an innovative consulting company with many years of project and management experience. We will offer you the right prerequisites/ opportunities for your personal development and your career. Due to rapid expansion we are looking for an:

Experienced Project Manager

Are you ambitious, determined and you can “think outside the box”? You want challenging work with great perspectives for development in an internationally operating company. Then we are looking for you!

Your job description:

- Lead projects in terms of time, budget, and quality
- Concretization of the overall concept of the project
- Detailed planning of work load, resources and dates
- Implementation of project documentation structures
- Definition of measurement criteria and control parameters for the project
- Conduct customer management, partner management, co-worker management
- Project controlling and reporting
- Completion and closing of projects
- If needed, conducting risk management accompanying a project
- Identification of further business opportunities originating from and during the project and its environment

Your Profile:

- Diplom engineer or technician with years of experience including in the area of quality/ quality control
- Autonomous work ethic und ability to communicate in an international setting
- Motivation, endurance, team spirit, flexibility
- Confident appearance and assertiveness
- Ideally certified with PMI or IPMA as a project leader
- Competent with Office software
- Very good reading and writing skills in English and German

Your Prospects/ Your Advantages:

An attractive position/ employment in an innovative consulting company with a merit- based salary and attractive social benefits await you. For more information visit: www.gw-partner.com. Your convincing application / consulting profile please send to:

Gehrung & Partner, Heinkelstrasse 14, 74369 Löchgau, info@gw-partner.com